13 VS

14 Deputy Honig et. al.

15 July 15, 2008

16 Case No. 08-0663 JM (LSP)

17 Notice of Motion to 18 Motion to:

19 (1) Withdrawal of 20 motion.
 21 (2) withdraw/
 22 Dismiss Petition
 23 Complaint.

24 Petitioner Anthony Narbona makes this Notice of 25 motion, to Motion to withdraw IFP Motion,
 26 and withdraw Complaint for the following
 27 reasons. The motion is made July 15, 2008,
 28 and can be heard at the Courts convenience.

29 On March 12, 2008 Petitioner filed a Complaint
 30 against Deputies at San Diego County Jail.
 31 at the time the violation occurred and the 32 part of the jail that the incidents occurred
 33 were dark enough, and in the condition

1 Petitioner was in, I could not see the main
2 Deputy's Name Plate. Nor was I interested or 3 worried about getting his name. my life was 4 on the line there and almost lost due to 5 THAT Deputies Action, or In Action.

6 Petitioner was under the Assumption that 7 Through Discovery; Duty Rosters, and 8 Interrogatories and so on That Deputy 9 Could be Properly and Positively Identified.
10 But Now The Court has made This all but 11 impossible. ① I am Incarcerated. ② They,
12 The San Diego Sheriff Department will not 13 release any of the information Needed to 14 Identify one of Their own, in order to Avoid 15 a Civil Suit. Even if I did Show up and 16 ask them, It would take a Motion to 17 Compel.

18 So In order to not waste my time or 19 This Honorable Court's time, Petitioner
20 has given up on this issue. I'm not 21 mad at them any more, getting Justice doesn't 22 ~~always~~ always happen. I Just wish to drop this 23 issue now.

24 I declare under penalty of perjury of the laws
25 of California and Federal law that the above is 26 True.
